CARE AND TREATMENT OF JER-SEY CATTLE.

PRIZE ESSAY, BY MRS. ELLA ROCKWOOD.

Perhaps no breed of cattle possesses in a greater degree susceptibility to treatment, kind or unkind, than the Jersey. The peculiar nervous temperament so essential in a perfect dairy cow is one of her strongest characteristics.

Look at the bright, intelligent face of a true specimen, and you will be compelled to say, "What a fine, bright, and glistening eye, what a fine, bright, and glistening eye." Look at the thin, delicate nostrils, with their orange lining, which seem to scent danger like a deer, and seeing, know that this queen among cows demands and well deserves the most careful handling and kindest treatment to bring out her good qualities and keep them in her body.

No cow, from the scrub to the thoroughbred, can do her best unless under circumstances conducive to quiet and content; and although cows of more sluggish temperament may bear ill-usage with little apparent regard, it is not with the sensitive Jersey, and she soon departs.

From calvhood she should have reason to regard her master as her friend. No blows or harsh words should teach her to fear him; but she should expect and receive only caresses and kind words. Under such treatment she will develop a gentle, kind disposition.

She should be taught to lead by a halter, to stand quietly, and to submit to her handling of theudder long before she reaches maturity; so that she may be quiet and easily handled, instead of being wild and unmanageable, as heifers often are at that time. No breaking-in will be necessary, and if it is desirable to dispose of her she will bring a better price than one that has never been treated.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that when she drops her first call it is time enough to begin feeding her; she should have been fed from her birth with this view.

No supplemental food is better than ground oats as a help in developing theudder of a calf. As soon as she begins to eat hay she should have a little, night and morning, fed dry. Begin with half a pint of feed, or even less, and gradually increase the quantity until heifers will take a pint at a feeding. Her thirst and growth. A calf once stunted by insufficient or improper food will never make up for what she has lost.

We know that Unlucky Bill's poetry was appreciated by one reader of the Messenger. And with gaping breath do we await the arrival of the 11:19 mail, for we know when Bobby Ray reaches Thar, we shall hear of the death of Gideon's correspondent.

We were unaware that our poetry was being read or praised by so many, until our attention was called to the item con-

EKRON.

Mr. C. C. Beard, of Guston, was in town Friday.

Mr. Joe Cosby spent Easter at his home in Flaherty.

Miss Maggie Brumlett visited friends in Guston last week.

Misses Jessie and Bettie Bunner returned from Lodging last week.

taised in the correspondence of a sister from Guston. "Thanks, kindly?" We are not a bit jealous and fond of wheel train. Of this we find gives best results in milk and butter.

Each cow is a law unto herself as to the amount of food she can profitably consume. It takes more to produce a like result in her than in others. Up to the extent of her capacity the greater the return an animal consummated the greater the return at the pail and the churn; but when a cow is fed beyond her capacity to convert the food into milk and butter she is fed at a loss; the extra food goes to make fat.

A liberal allowance of coarse material should also be fed. Oliver hay, corn fodder, ensilage, etc. are good. Roots are valuable as a food for milch cows. Carrots are perhaps best, with sugar beets next. Turnips and rutabagas will flavor the butter.

Food should always be within reach of the cows. No other domestic animal is so fond of liberty, and the enlargement of the milk will follow if this is deprived of its abundance.

It is reported at Hardinsburg that a number of the wealthy taxpayers of that vicinity have given a big bond for the purpose of indemnifying the county against loss should the Magistrates refuse to levy the tax to pay the interest on the railroad bonds voted to McCormick & Co., and the railroad company against Hardinsburg and a part of the rough Creek districts in the Federal Court at Louisville, for the money, but now it is said the case is to be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States by the defendants, and the citizens want the Magistrates to withhold their action in making a levy until the matter is determined there.

The Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners held a meeting at Frankfort last week to consider the question of the county's tax to the Mason-Ford company less than to expire. Attorney General Hendrick offered a resolution providing that the Legislature be called upon to frame a law providing for working the convicts on the public roads of the State. The suggestion is not out of order. If such a move would result in giving us better roads, it ought to be adopted.

Taz County Levy Court is in session at Hardinsburg this week. This is the second time the people of the county have met to consider the question of attending the Grand Banks Convention which meets at Bowling Green on the 14th of this month. The subject of bettering the road system in this State is one that is just now attracting general attention, and Breckinridge should not be left out. Let us interest ourselves more on the question of good roads for our country.

Is there anything in a name. Well we shall see. There is a Democratic club in this county called the Cardinal Club, and the members of the Kentucky ticket for the Legislature. Parties like us, about wanting some of the public pie should not fail to call the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury to this fact when they visit Washington.

A. R. SUTTON a prominent whisky dealer of Louisville, has been locked up on the charge of forgery. He is said to have swindled a number of Louisville banks of large sums by forging receipts. He is a man of middle-of-the-road whisky dealer, had the confidence of the public for many years.

John Allen Murray, Hon. W. H. Miller and Hon. D. H. Severs were appointed delegates to represent this county at the Road Convention, which meets at Bowling Green next Wednesday. This is the initial step towards good roads in Breckinridge, it is said to the credit of the county court.

PUBLIC AUCTION!

J. FLAGE CARTER'S

First Annual Stock Sale!

IRVINGTON, KY., Friday, April 14th, 1893.

Consisting of HORSES, CATTLE, HOGS and SHEEP. At the head of the list stands

BEN HERR and DUPLEX

The last of Shelby Girl's Colts, which met with an accident last winter that cost her her life. This remarkable mare was sired by Shelby Chief, he by Alexander's Abdallah, dam by Hinton's Eclipse, he by American Eclipse, was a five gaited animal and could trot a mile in 2:38. Her ability to produce combined horses from gaited sires and full fledged trotters from trotting sires seems wonderful.

BEN HERR, is a combined three year old stallion, black, no white, in form closely resembles his world renowned ancestor American Eclipse, leaving out low wethers. See American Cyclopedias of Live Stock, page 212. Sired by Royal Denmark N. S. R. No. — his pedigree runs down through America's grandest old sires of the turf, such as Denmark, Sr., Gray Eagle, Woodpecker, Bertram, Sir Archie, Diamond, Sumpter and Hedgeford. Dam, Shelby Girl, His gait is natural, he has not been ridden over a half dozen times. He was driven two weeks to harness to cultivate his square trot.

DUPLEX, stallion, yearling, fast color bay, sired by Aberdeen Star, he by Alexander's Abdallah. Dam, Shelby Girl, making him an inbred Abdallah. He can't do anything but trot. Alexander's Abdallah, was the sire of Goldsmith's Maid, with 332 heats in 2:30 and better to her credit, and closed her career in 1877, after she was 20 years old, trotting in that year 41 heats under 2:30 and down as low as 2:14. The American Cyclopedias of Live Stock, page 139, sums her up as the marvel of the age. Bids by mail on Duplex accompanied by good Commercial Reference will be honored.

The colt is thin in flesh, but sound, and will be sold at a sacrifice. He will be two years old in May 1893, is nearly 15 hands high.

GRETNA GREEN, four year old mare by Kyler. Dam Cubit, a fast pacer, was put in training one month, but two years old, can do a mile in 3:4, then used for family driving, very gentle. I recommend her to any as any horse of her age.

GOL CONDA, eight year-old gelding, safe family driver. Pedigree not traced.

YOUNG JIM, four year-old gelding by Kyler. Dam a McLackey. Does all farm work kindly on the off. Wouldn't recommend him to be a safe family horse. Will give a written guarantee that these horses are sound and just what I represent them.

CATTLE, twelve head three-year-old steers, corn fed, all dehorned, two milk cows and some yearlings.

SHEEP, about sixty-five cws, with and without lambs, clipped.

HOGS, twenty head of very fine stock hogs.

TERMS OF SALE--A credit of six months without interest, with bond and approved security, except on Ben Herr, a longer time will be given, which will be made known on day of sale. To those wanting to pay cash, a discount will be given. The cause of selling my entire string of fancy-bred horses, is that I am convinced that the Silo is better adapted to wintering stock of the Bovine Species, a thing I expect to make a specialty of in the future.

JOHN L. HENRY will assist in the management of the sale, and settle all disputes that may arise, fairly—Mr. D. W. HENRY will furnish the wind. Everything put up will be sold regardless of price. Sale commences promptly at 1 o'clock.

J. FLAGE CARTER.

P. S.—Six to ten new Buggies, Spring Wagons, Carts and Surries, will be sold on same day publicly, for R. M. Jolly and J. W. Piggott. On credit of six months with approved security. Six per cent. interest from date.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1893.

MULDRAUGH.

Mr. Henry Mosalzger has brought on his spring goods.

Mr. George Critcher and sister have returned from Vine Grove.

Mr. Arthur Smith, who has been working in New Albany, Ind., has returned home.

Mrs. Ben. Winterbauer gave a party Thursday evening, which was quite an enjoyable affair.

Miss Mollie Withers spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bettie Moremen, of Valley Station.

Miss Minnie Pusey, one of Louisville's most fashionable modiste spent Easter with her father, Mr. George Pusey.

Toga Springs will be opened about the first of May under the management of Messrs. James Maynard and J. T. Dawson.

Mr. Creed and Tom. Hayes spent several days in Vine Grove last week, the guests of their sister, Mrs. Jim. Smith.

Mrs. S. L. Monarch and family, who have been visiting her mother, Mr. J. B. Withers, returned to their home in Owingsboro Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Harris, of Louisville, will take charge of Chrystal Lake this summer. We are expecting a good time this summer going to picnics and barbecues.

Misses Edna and Bettie Harrington were taken very sick with the mumps while visiting in New Albany, Ind. Mr. Bert Magners accompanied them home. We hope to see them out again soon.

Mr. E. W. Smith, of Louisville, bought a Myrtle's farm on which they expect to grow 15,000 peach trees. Mr. Monarch is a well-known distiller of Owingsboro. Their anticipations are to erect a large distillery to utilize the fruit that is not saleable.

Mr. Abe Warren while cutting in a clearing, fell a tree on his leg, which broke it. They sent in various directions for the doctors. They declined to go because it was a poor man. After one poor old man had suffered 24 hours, one of our good neighbors took the money and placed it in the hands of one of them and he came willingly.

FALLS OF ROUGH.

We have several cases of gripe at the Falls, but all were out enjoying the gladsome Easter.

The dam has proved a great success, and is a lasting monument to the skill of the late Mr. Bennett.

Farmers are very busy putting in their seed, and are trying to keep close in their walls and already have their gardens in an advanced state of cultivation.

Mrs. Peyton, who has been quite an invalid during the winter, has recovered sufficiently to visit her friends in Goston. Upon her return she expects to open her for summer guests.

Maj. Lawrence, president of the Fish and Game Club, writes that he will be down with a number of carpenters to build a lode house for the use of the club during the fall and hunting season.

Mr. Bennett spent Saturday and Sunday in the city, in the course of his work.

Several parties from Breckinridge were over seeing the creek yesterday and we fear have injured the fishing by rod and line. Many good hunters condemn the practice of snaring and netting the game, but the wholesale destruction of small fish is much more to be deplored.

Easter Sunday has come and gone yesterday. The sun is fast setting in all his glory after having shed his beautiful bright rays upon the country round about. The Sunday School celebrated the day by having an egg hunt, and each scholar was remembered in the many nests that the Easter hen made in the churchyard.

They say a known by his chip, a judgment from the stars, a known by his pulse, a known by his biorhythm, the theorom must be turning out thousands of axe handles per day. These balmishes, too, is thriving, and now the roads are getting dry, we expect to see wagons coming in from all directions loaded down with ties.

SAMPLE.

Gardening is the order of the day.

Ed. McLevy was in town last Sunday, Saturday was all fool's day and—Oh, my!

Eugene Conner went to Rose Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Hunter went to Cloverport Friday.

Mrs. Clara Conner, accompanied by Miss Millie Conner, of Rome, Ind., was a guest of Mrs. E. Connor Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Tom. Jolly went to Stephensport Sunday.

Willie Jolly did not go to Hardinsburg Sunday as usual.

School is going on. Brown McCubbin is the teacher.

El. Gregory, Sulzer's hustling salesman.

Madame Rumor says we are to have a wedding in our midst soon.

Miss Lucy and Addie Jolly spent Sunday with Miss Ida Payne.

Miss Lena Gilliland in Louisville the wife of Miss Little Dickerson.

J. N. McQuady is still slowly improving and we hope he's long to see him out again.

Miss Tena Jordan, of Dwyerlyville, was visiting Miss Maggie Beauchamp last week.

Mr. Sanford Whitworth, now of Cloverport, was the guest of Miss Lola Roberts Sunday.

A. J. Bennett returned from Tell City Sunday night, where he had been with a raft of logs.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Basman, of Cloverport, were the guests of Mrs. Susan Roberts Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Bennett spent Sunday very pleasantly with the Misses Roberts.

L. D. Dowell and daughter, Miss Anna, went to Stephensport Saturday on the 1st.

Mrs. Guy Gibson and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Cloverport, made a short visit to relatives and friends here and at Louisville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mattingly, of the Hambleton House, Hardinsburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mattingly Saturday and Sunday.

The World's Fair

Can not remain stuck without the gloomy looking and radiant complexion which health alone imparts. Park's Tea by clearing the blood of impurities, makes the complexion regain the hue of youth.

Carlyle on Women of Genius.

These women of genius, sir, are the very d—l when you take them on the wing.

Tack. I know very well that I myself am a d—l, but I am not the only one at least—am to have one of them for my helmate, and I expect nothing but that our life will be the most turbulent, tempestuous thing on earth—a mixture of honey and wormwood, the sweetest and bitterest—or, as it were, at one time the clearest and sunshiniest weather in the same season—and the emusines always in the smallest quantity. Judge how you would have relished this; and along with a cheerful heart, "E'er Iet the bonny lass gang!"

WORLD'S FAIR.

STATE BUILDINGS AT THE FAIR.

How Indiana, West Virginia, Rhode Island and Florida Will Be Represented.

The world is always something left meager at the World's Fair, and the affair as the Chicago World's fair it is encouraging to learn that all the state buildings will be completed in good time, and that each is typical of the state it represents.

events. Among the latest states to do her work on the grounds is West Virginia, and she has done the appropriate thing by putting up a headquarters for her citizens. The building is a fine one, with its porches and wings, suggests reminiscences of both the south and the mountains. As is the case with most of the state buildings, it is to be used for social purposes and a gathering place for the state's people rather than for an exposition, and any visitor from West Virginia will be welcome.

Oddly enough, Hayti was the first to complete her building, and Australia was the first to get her exposition on the grounds. Of the states, Indiana has in-designed in a stately style of architecture, but her Columbian home is a fitting tribute from a great state to a great event. Hayti, the critics say that she is not living in the tradition to suggest the state, but Indiana proudly repudiates the looks like Sir Edmund Head's any other now. That's the beauty of the state.

Florida has taken for the model of its World's fair building Fort Marion, the old fort at the fortress of St. Augustine, one of the oldest and most picturesque in the United States. The state building is an exact reproduction of the old fortress. It was originally Fort San Marco, was begun in 1555, or very near that time, and was built by the hand of Indian slaves. In the year of its completion it was repaired and named Fort Marion.

Rhode Island, though the smallest state in the Union, will have a large and very imposing building at Chicago. Its exhibit will necessarily consist largely of used exhibits, but the state was one of the first to have a great deal of the old and most picturesque in the United States. The state

The fish market, the fish and fisheries department of the World's fair is in a copy of a very fine one from the best book of Syracuse. The original was built in 1375, and is a national relic. In 1883 it was visited London as a member of the United States commission and participated in several contests with the silk merchants from different parts of Europe and succeeded in carrying off the first honor.

Hayti is one of the first in St. Lawrence college who many years ago adopted the custom of sending a lady to the World's fair as what is known as disciplining the school adopted when men and women were allowed to study together.

The college has strict masters.

The students are required to say, and they discipline the young men with their very presence. We really have a shock or two, and there will be several hundred specimens.

Bad complexion indicates unhealthy state of the system. Do what little you can to get rid of it, and you will improve this condition. They act on the liver, they act on the stomach, they act on the bowels. Short & Hayes, Cloverport, and Beard & Beeler, Hardinsburg.
